The object of Death in the Carribean is to find the buried treasure. This can be a long and dangerous hunt, and you will need to collect objects along the way to help you survive. The map will help you navigate. Good luck!

Death in the Carribean is played using both sides of two disks. Start the game with side one of disk one. You will be told when to turn it over and when to use each side of disk two.

To play Death in the Carribean on the Commodore 64:

1. Turn on the disk drive.
2. Turn on the computer and monitor.

When you see, "READY"...

3. Insert the Death in the Caribbean disk labeled Disk #1 Side #1 into the drive and close the door.

4. Type: LOAD "*",8
Press: RETURN key

When you see, "READY"...

5. Type: RUN
Press: RETURN key

The red "in use" light will come on while the program is loading.

COMMANDS

To travel through the Caribbean, type the first letter of the word for the direction you want to travel:

East	Forward
West	Backward
North	Left
South	Right

To investigate or take an object encountered along the way and to receive clues, type one or two words and press RETURN key. Type the name of the object you want to look at or take.

For example you might type:

examine wagon	take wagon
x seat	get seat
look seat

To review items or objects collected, press I.

When you want to stop and save your progress in the hunt:

1. Type: SAVE
Press: RETURN key

You will be asked to place a save game disk in the drive and enter a number from 1-9.

3. Remove Death in the Caribbean disk and insert an "initialized" disk.

4. Enter a number from 1-9

Press: RETURN key

After the game has been saved you will be asked to insert the correct game disk and side and press space bar to continue playing the game.

5. Remove save game disk and insert correct Death in the Caribbean disk and side.

Press space bar

You can stop and SAVE up to nine times on one disk. If the "save" number is used twice on a disk, the new one will override the old one. Label the disk appropriately to avoid mistakes.

To LOAD your progress to date:

1. Load game disk #1 side #1 as stated at the beginning of the instructions if the computer has just been turned on.

When the first picture of the game appears...

2. Type: LOAD

Press: RETURN key

You will be asked to insert the saved game disk and enter the number.

3. Remove the Death in the Caribbean disk and insert the saved game disk.

4. Type the number of the saved game.

Press: RETURN key

You will be asked to insert the correct game disk and side.

5. Remove the save game disk and insert correct Death in the Caribbean disk and side.

Press: space bar

HINT: You can load a saved game at any time during your journey. Simply type "LOAD" and the prompts will tell you when to switch disks.
